

National Museum of the Marine Corps

Scope of Work

- The project was a new 118,000-square-foot world class museum building using the most innovative technology to surround visitors with irreplaceable artifacts and immerse them in the sights and sounds of Marines in action.
- The project consisted of furnishing and installation of incoming switchgear, lighting control, life safety systems and a switchgear monitoring.

Project Team

- Owner:
Marine Corps Heritage Foundation
and the US Marine Corps
- MEP Engineer
Hankins and Anderson, Inc.
- Architect
Fentress-Bradburn Architects (FBA)
- General Contractor:
Centex Construction Company

Reference:

Centex Construction Company
Contact: Mr. Matt Dye
Phone: 703 / 930 3576

Date Completed:

May 25, 2005

Contract Value:

Approximately $2.9 Million